THE GLASTONBURY MURAL TRAIL

The Glastonbury Mural Trail would like to announce the launch of their brand new website glastonburymuraltrail.co.uk

Launched in 2019 with 28 murals, the Glastonbury Mural Trail has seen amazing growth in the past months, now featuring over 50 murals dotted throughout the town of Glastonbury in Somerset.

This new website, designed by local web designer Matt Witt using funds from Glastonbury Chamber of Commerce, was created by local artist and founder of the Glastonbury Mural Trail, Kim von Coels.

The Glastonbury Mural Trail is a celebration of the diverse creative talent that Glastonbury has in abundance. It is a collection of public art that can be viewed completely free of charge, open 24/7 all year round and is fully accessible to everyone. With over 30 participating artists and more than 50 Murals, there is something to suit everyone's taste. Having become an integral part of the town's landscape, the Mural Trail has drawn in and engaged visitors, becoming a tourist attraction in its own right.

This project has blossomed through the hard work of volunteers, many talented artists and through the generous support of local Glastonbury businesses and individuals. This Glastonbury Mural Trail has been funded entirely by the Glastonbury Community.

Inspired by the original mural trail by Jim and Caroline of the Pilgrim Reception Centre, the trail's current incarnation has been an exercise in collective creativity thanks to artists and sponsors who are passionate about keeping Glastonbury colourful.

The new website tells the story of the trails inception, the history of the towns murals, sponsors and supporters, and features a picture gallery and online shop selling prints of the murals and original art. There is also information on how to get involved with the mural trail by volunteering or sponsoring some of the artwork, or simply by donating to help fund the work that goes on throughout the year.

For those who are unable to visit in person, we have a interactive online map containing 360 degree views of each artwork, kindly created by local videographer Gabriel Avalon.

Alongside of the new website we are debuting a new 2021 Glastonbury Mural Trail leaflet and map. These were designed by local graphic designer Kirsten Rae at the Somerset Design Studio. These Mural Trail leaflets can be picked up for free from The Glastonbury Information Centre at St. Dunstan's House. The Rogues Gallery at 8a High Street or Heart of The Tribe at 74 High Street.
